JOURNAL OF SPIRITUAL AWAKENING

"This magazine can change your life!"
~ Prem Prakash,
Green Mountain School of Yoga

Spirituality is expanding

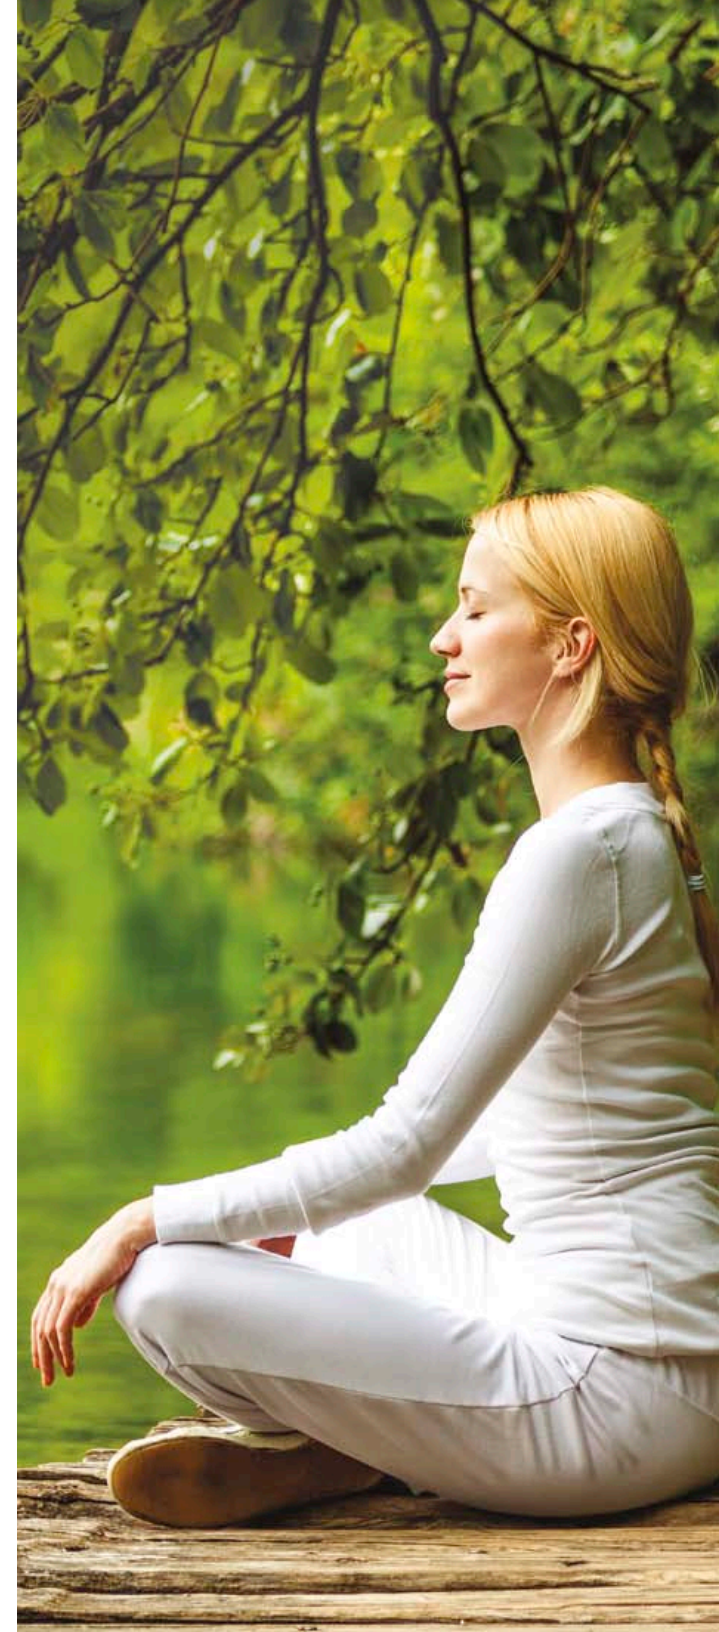

Of young adults, 37 percent describe themselves as “spiritual but not religious.”

This is clearly also the story of the ascent of “spirituality” in America. The group is so large that pollsters have created a separate category on questionnaires.

From Oprah.com: A 2006 poll conducted by the Travel Industry Association found that 25 percent of American travelers were interested in taking a spiritual vacation.

The phones at Esalen, the old '60s spiritual/intellectual center hanging over the Big Sur coastline, are ringing with new inquiries. Online prayer groups and chat rooms are popping up all over, as are interfaith communities like Beliefnet. Elizabeth Gilbert's spiritually seeking juggernaut, Eat, Pray, Love, has sold nearly five million copies. Yoga has become so mainstream, Marines are doing sun salutations at a base camp in Iraq.

Our audience is

65% women | 35% men

60% aged 35 to 54

20% below age 35

75% college educated

17% postgraduate trained

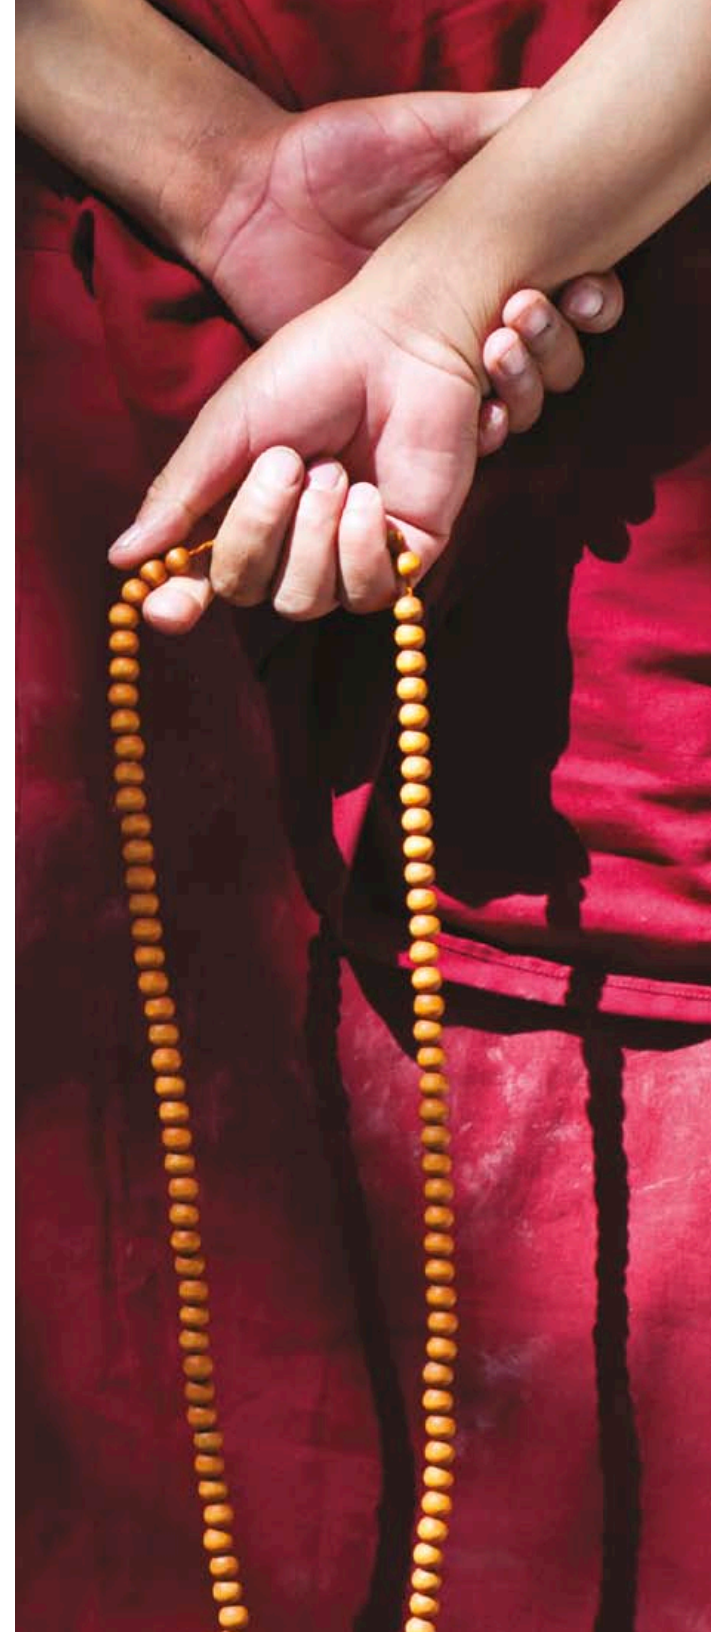

All of the United States and Canada are represented

Our mission

Light of Consciousness was founded in 1988 by Swami Amar Jyoti and continues under His guidance.

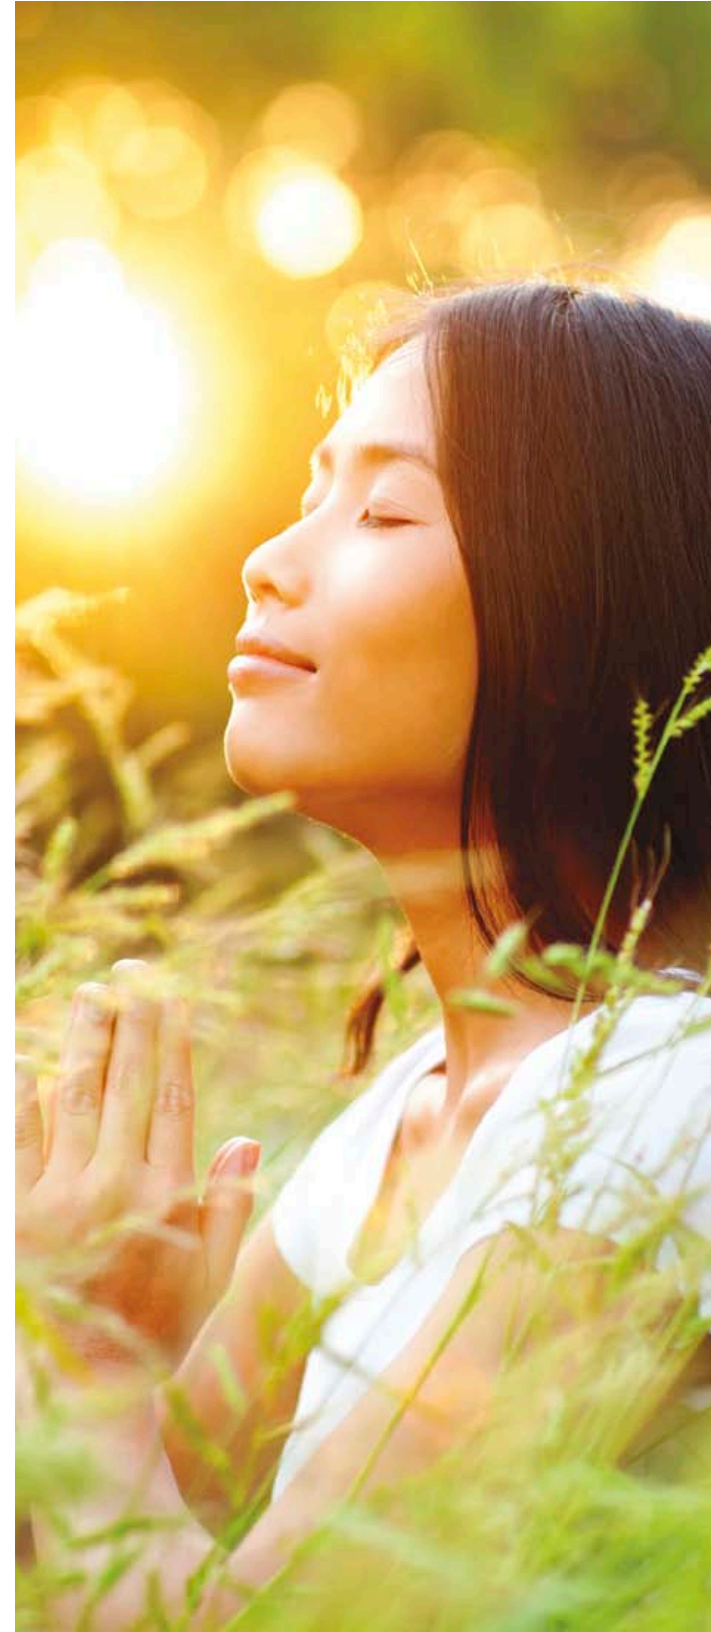

It is dedicated to our awakening into the Pure Consciousness that dwells within all. According to Sanatana Dharma, the Eternal Religion or Truth, Spirit manifests throughout creation in infinite diversity.

The underlying harmony and eternal principles are common to all spiritual paths and traditions: Truth is One, Sages call it by many names. Whichever path we choose, the way is through each of us to realize the Divine within.

*When the mind becomes completely still,
it returns to its true form:
Consciousness.*

*What becomes of the mind?
It simply dissolves.
That is Enlightenment.*

~ Swami Amar Jyoti

Recognition

....the best produced journal on yogic thought.

—David Frawley

Light of Consciousness honors the integrity of authentic spirituality through writings filled with wisdom, love and divine energy. This magazine can change your life!

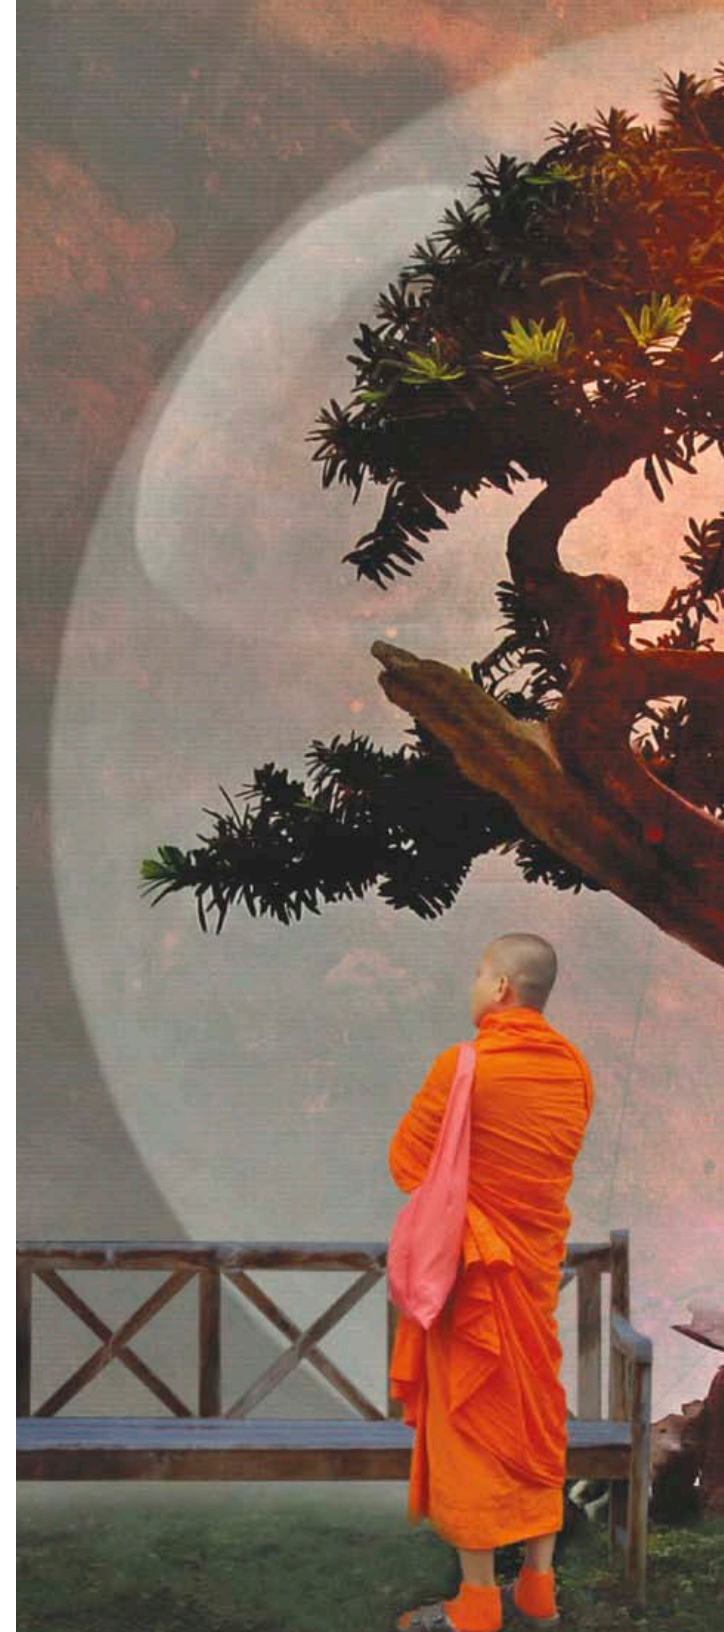

—Prem Prakash, Green Mountain School of Yoga

By delivering deep teachings from many spiritual traditions, Light of Consciousness truly serves as a beacon for those on the path.

—Michael A. Singer, author of The Surrender Experiment: My Journey Into Life's Perfection

Light of Consciousness is crafted like an offering to God the way it is put together, allowing the reader to BE in Satsang while absorbing its content. I love the Satsang messages of Swami Amar Jyoti, which fill me with love and a greater appreciation for life. The variety of articles and subjects from various sources provide the reader with different ways in which to tap into the spiritual well, all leading to the same place. I look forward to each issue and feel like an inner light is turned on a bit brighter with each reading. I can tell that the individuals responsible for putting the magazine together do so out of an act of love. R. K.
